Wyoming Newspaper Man—O. O. Davis, representing the Green River Star, is in Ogden, taking in the sights. He notes a big improvement in this city within the last two years. Green River, he says, is growing and now has a population of 1400. The sal-soda works at that place are under new management and the industry now promises to enjoy a great expansion and much prosperity.

Pleased With Ogden—Cyrus Adler of St. Louis, who has been the guest of J. E. Devore for number of days and who is owner of the M. He says Ogden has the outward appearance of being more prosperous than any city in Utah.

May Bring Back Forger—Harry Hill, a man who several months ago passed a number of bogus checks in this city and who later was arrested on Evanston, Wyo., for a similar offense, has about completed his sentence in the Evanston jail and the local authorities are making arrangements to have him brought back to Ogden to answer for the crimes committed here. The police have notified the merchant who suffered by Hill's operations in this city and, if they decide to have the man punished, steps will be taken to secure his requisition.

Orange Blossom Suppository

I cannot be thankful enough for what the Orange Blossom Suppository has done for me. I was a chronic sufferer for five years with abscess of the womb, could not ride or walk at all, was greatly reduced and only weighed 124 pounds. I learned of the Orange Blossom Suppository and gave it a trial, was relieved from the first, have used nearly two boxes and am a well woman, weigh 160 pounds and do all my own housework. Would advise all sufferers of female weakness to try the Orange Blossom Suppository. Yours very sincerely,
